Double Your Donation Thanks to an Anonymous Donor!

Beware the Ides of March! March 15 generally has dark and gloomy connotations, and we acknowledge one year since our season was halted and the world changed. But the Ides of March once signified the new year, with celebrations & rejoicing. The sun is shining, it's getting warmer, vaccines are here, and we are cautiously optimistic about plans for next season.

Bach Talk: Webinar on March 29

Bach at the Crossroads – A Generational & Aesthetic Conflict

Most generations experience a divide when musical styles shift and change. At the end of his career, Bach was confronted by younger critics about his 'outdated' style of composition; in the face of this, Bach retaliated by enlisting friends to write articles in his defense, and by composing some of his most complex and personal pieces - The Art of the Fugue, The Mass in B Minor, to name a few.

During this free 60-minute Zoom seminar, Dr. Charlene Pauls will show you a side of Bach you probably never expected. Register for this free webinar here: <https://www.canadahelps.org/en/charities/guelph-chamber-choir/events/bach-at-the-crossroads-a-generational-aesthetic-conflict-webinar>

The GCC is holding a 50-50 raffle, with the winning ticket to be drawn May 15th. Tickets are just $10 each, and limited to 1100 tickets.

What is a 50-50 draw? For each ticket sold, half of the money goes into the jackpot, and half to the GCC to support future programming costs. The more tickets sold then the larger the jackpot, to a maximum of $5500 (last year's winner got over $4000!).

Tickets are available by contacting the GCC at info@guelphchamberchoir.ca
