

View this email in your browser

Guelph Chamber Choir TuneIN

Volume 2, Issue 1 · September 22, 2021

Resurfacing Through Song - Oct 2

The GCC with conductor Charlene Pauls is presenting “Resurfacing Through Song”, featuring John Rutter’s Requiem and other works with two presentations at 5:30 PM and 7:30 PM, on Saturday, October 2nd, 2021.

Please join us as we return to our first live concert since the pandemic, in a program that explores themes of loss and mourning, hope and comfort.

Everyone, including the artists, must be fully vaccinated and masked. Tickets are limited to 60 per performance, and must be purchased in advance.

Looking ahead to the 21-22 Season

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼RSS

include:

November 28: "Sing Amid the Winter's Snow" Carols concert

December 18: Handel's Messiah

April 2: "Side by Side: Guelph Sings Together"

Follow us on Facebook or Twitter, or check our website for updates!

Fourth Friday at the Civic Museum

Resonance: Guelph Chamber Choir at 40, the 10-month exhibit at the Guelph Civic Museum, wrapped up with a Fourth Friday concert on August 27th. It was a wonderful experience for the choir members to sing together in front of a live audience!

Emerging Artist Program

The GCC is excited to announce the Emerging Artist Program, designed to attract talented new choristers, specifically from a younger and more diverse demographic. This season we are thrilled to welcome Autumn Debassige (mezzo) and Ben Sproule (tenor) as the inaugural GCC Emerging Artists. Stay tuned to learn more about Autumn and Ben, along with our new and returning members.

Subscribe

Past Issues

Translate ▾

RSS

Copyright © 2021 Guelph Chamber Choir, All rights reserved.

Charitable Registration No. 87575 6769 RR 0001

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

